GENERAL SUMMARY.

The rain-fall of the year was 130 inches, as against 108·66 in 1870—71, and an ordinary average of 120 inches. The fall of rain lasted longer and was lighter, and more continuous during the monsoon, than in the previous year. Heavy rain fell in North Coorg in November, causing the streams and rivers to overflow and doing great damage to the newly cut crops on low lying grounds.

2. The mean temperature for the whole year was 65·3 as against 66·2 in 1870—71. The maximum and minimum temperature registered at the Central School at Mercara was 85° and 50° respectively. The climate generally was on the whole more salubrious than during the previous year.

3. The season was favorable to agriculture, and the rice crops were generally good; but much loss occurred from the unexpected rain in November, which destroyed and swept away large quantities of the newly cut grain. The coffee crop was smaller than was expected, but the general condition of the estates was improved, though some of them suffered from leaf disease, the spread of which caused much alarm and anxiety amongst the planters.

The price of food was moderate. The hire of skilled labor rose during the year from fourteen annas to one rupee per diem, and the average rate paid for unskilled labor was about four annas per diem.

4. The mortality returns shew that the state of the public health continued to be unsatisfactory, the number of deaths reported being 3,231 or 28·31 per mille of the population, as against 3,229 in the previous year. The deaths from fever, which is the prevailing disease of the District, aggregated 2,300, and there were 31 from cholera, which was for a short time epidemic at Fraserpéte. Small pox was also prevalent in Mercara and some other places, and some Coorg families suffered severely from this disease, though it is remarked that no patients attended the hospital for treatment for it.

The total number of births registered was 1,043, or 16·24 per mille of the population ; the returns under this head are not, however, as yet reliable.

5. The tabulation of the returns of the census taken on the night of the 14th November last, has not yet been completed, and the population according to it, cannot therefore be stated in this report. According to the annual returns, the population was 113,089 as against 111,830 in 1870—71.

The area of the Province is estimated at 2,000 square miles, and that figure has been adopted for statistical purposes in the present report, though it is probably excessive. The ratio of population to area, according to it, was about 56·85 per square mile.

6. The demand under all heads, inclusive of that on account of Local and Municipal funds and the outstanding balance from the previous year, aggregated Rs. 6,72,352, as against Rs. 6,59,334 in 1870—71.

The collections under all heads amounted to Rs. 5,45,853, as against Rs. 5,44,864 in the previous year.

The expenditure under the heads provided for in the Civil Budget was Rs. 2,49,310, or Rs. 43,470 less than the sanctioned amount; but, including the charges connected with the Military, Public Works, and Telegraph Department, &c., aggregated Rs. 6,00,003.

The outstanding revenue balances under all heads at the close of the official year aggregated Rs. 1,17,793, of which sum, Rs. 91,228 consisted of the instalments falling due in April and May, the payments on account of which, up to 30th June, amounted to Rs. 81,446, leaving a total balance outstanding on that date of Rs. 36,347. The causes of so large a balance remaining outstanding are under enquiry.

7. There are no reliable statistics as to the condition of trade in Coorg, and the value of its exports and imports ; but the general opinion in the Province is, that trade is steadily increasing, and that the prospects of the country in this respect are encouraging.

8. The criminal returns shew a decrease of 25 per cent in the total number of offences, as contrasted with the previous year, the figures being 713 as against 949. The number of murders reported was the same in both years, and there was a slight increase in the crime of "house-breaking." There was a general decrease under other heads. No case of highway robbery occurred, but two dacoities were committed. The value of property reported to have been lost, and of that recovered, was rupees 11,024 and Rs. 3,802, respectively.

9. No change was made during the year in the Police arrangements of the Province, which consisted of a small force of Town Police, maintained at an aggregate annual cost of Rs. 1,596 in the towns of Mercara and Vírjapéte, and of 3,818 jamma ryots who hold their jamma lands, on half assessment, and form the District, or Rural Police of the country.

The proportion of the Police, as above, to area and population was one Policeman to every $\frac{1}{2}$ a square mile, and to every 29 persons.

10. The operations of the Police shew that of 1,236 persons implicated in 662 cases brought to trial during the past year, 213 were arrested by the Police suo motu, and 1,023 were brought before the Courts on summons or warrants. Of the total number of persons arrested by the Police, 31·84 per cent were convicted, as against 35 per cent in 1870. It is satisfactory to find that the Judicial Commissioner considers that there was an improvement in the operations of the Police during the past year.

11. In the Judicial Department the proceedings of the Criminal Courts were satisfactorily conducted, and shewed an improvement, in some respects in which such was needed, as contrasted with the previous year; the percentages of convictions and committals were 49, as against 46, and of acquittals and discharges 35 and 16 respectively, as against 25 and 29. The average duration of criminal trials was 5 days. The number of appeals was 29, as against 23 in 1870, and all were disposed of.

12. The number of suits instituted in the Civil Courts was 1,011, as against 1,312 in the previous year. The aggregate value of the property in litigation was Rs. 86,808, as against Rs. 1,54,601 in 1870. The average value of each suit was Rs. 85—8—0.

There was an improvement in the average duration of contested and uncontested suits, as contrasted with the previous year, the periods having been 30 and 24 days respectively, as against 43 and 29 in 1870. The number of appeals was 75, as against 106. Two appeals remained pending at the close of the year.

The value of decrees executed by sales of property or otherwise, during the year, aggregated Rs. 51,834, as against Rs. 61,576 in 1870.

The large decrease in the number and value of suits instituted during the year under report; as contrasted with 1870, is not considered to have been due to any diminution of trade or business, a large proportion of the cases filed in 1870 having, it is stated, been so instituted to prevent their being barred by the Limitation Act, which swelled the number that year. The decrease is also to some extent attributed to the strict enforcement of the rules regarding the vakils practising in the Courts. As contrasted with 1869, however, the number of suits in 1871 shewed a decrease of 71.

13. The total number of prisoners in jail was 379, as against 466, the daily average number being 69·43, as against 68·2 in 1870 The mortality was 1·45 per cent of daily strength.

The gross average cost of each prisoner in jail was Rs. 103—6—2. as against Rs. 124—13—9 in 1870, and the total cash earnings of the prisoners were Rs. 1,010, as against Rs. 455, while the total estimated value of their labor was Rs. 3,037—3—0. The health of the prisoners was remarkably good.

The total cost of the District Jail and Lock-ups aggregated Rs. 6,718, as against Rs. 8,026 in the previous year.

14. Act II of 1871, extending Act XXVI of 1870, (The Prisons Act), and Bombay Act XX of 1864, (relating to minors), were specially extended to Coorg during the year under report.

15. The total number of Government and aided schools was 33 and 3 respectively. The indigenous schools numbered 28. The total number of pupils receiving instruction in the Government and aided schools was 2,049 as against 1,766, and in the indigenous schools 403, as against 249 in the previous year. The increased attendance of pupils included a considerable proportion of boys of the Coorg race. The number of girls receiving instruction was 130, as against 89 in 1870.

The Mercara Central School continued to make fair progress, and was favorably reported on.

Arrangements for the levy of an educational cess, in the form of a plough tax, and for the extension of the operations of the Department, have been approved and sanctioned by the Government of India, and are now in progress ; and the prospects of education in the Province are very encouraging.

16. The total expenditure on public works during the past year was Rs. 99,583, of which, Rs. 91,862 were provided from Imperial, and Rs. 7,721 from District or Local funds.

17. Under the head of civil buildings, the only works of importance, in progress during the year, were (1) the Public Offices at Vírájpét, which were completed ; (2) the Executive Engineer's office at Mercara, which was stopped after the foundations were laid ; and (3) the offices for the Assistant Superintendent, Executive Engineer, and Assistant Conservator of Forests at Mercara, which were commenced in the last quarter of the year. The total outlay on original works and repairs under this head was Rs. 17,786.

18. Under the head of irrigation, no new projects were undertaken. The outlay on repairs by the Revenue Department, aggregated Rs. 2,000.

19. Under the head of communications, considerable progress was made in the works on the Periyambádi Ghát, and the Vurti bridge was completed. The usual repairs were carried on on the ghát and other lines of road. The total outlay under this head was Rs. 54,970, of which Rs. 47,249 was from imperial and Rs. 7,721 from local funds. The general condition of the existing roads was satisfactory.

20. A large proportion of the avenue trees planted on the lines of road during the past year, failed from the long drought at the close of the past and beginning of the current years; but many have succeeded, and the vacancies have since been, or will be, filled up.

21. The operations of the Forest Department were not as satisfactory as could be desired, owing to the continued neglect of the Assistant Conservator in charge, till his removal in the 3rd quarter of the year. Fair progress was, however, subsequently made by his successor, and it is hoped that the report for the current year will prove that this has since been sustained.

22. The demarcation of 41¾ square miles of boundary of the State-forests was completed at a moderate cost during the latter part of the year. The number of forests of this class was 12, the area of 10 of which is estimated at about 374 square miles. Two of the State-forests are situated on the ghâts, and their area is not known.

23. The gross receipts in cash realized by the Department during the past year, amounted to Rs. 92,453. The expenditure was Rs. 30,981, and the net revenue for the year, after adjusting the difference in the value of the stock in hand at its commencement and close, was rupees 56,812.

24. Four hospitals and dispensaries, including those attached to the Native Infantry Regiment and the Jail, were open during the year, and afforded medical aid to 7,741 patients. An increase in the number is much required, as at present the great bulk of the population are entirely without medical aid of any sort, and it is proposed to train up a limited number of Coorgs as medical subordinates, for employment eventually in any new dispensaries that may be established.

25. The number of vaccine operations performed by the two vaccinators maintained for the purpose was 952, of which only 605, or less than two-thirds, were successful. The average cost of each successful operation was 10 annas. The results are not very satisfactory.

26. The operations of the Revenue Survey comprised 21,036 acres surveyed, and 9,886 acres demarcated. The number of estates concerned was 896, or 833 fewer than in 1870-71; but the work actually executed was greater.

The total average cost of the survey and demarcation operations was Rs. 1—1—2, and Rs. 0—1—2 per acre respectively, and the total charges of the Department under all heads aggregated Rs. 23,275.

It is hoped that the operations yet to be completed, will be finished by the close of 1872.

27. The total area of lands held under grants for coffee cultivation, was 76,275 acres, or 1,115 acres less than in the previous year.

ESTATES HELD BY—	Total Area assessed in Acres.		Area planted in acres.		Assessment.
	1870-71	1871-72	1870-71	1871-72	1870-71	1871-72
Europeans ...	48,895	47,333	17,631	19,132	94,470	93,105
Natives ...	28,495	28,942	15,000	16,000
Total.....	77,390	76,275	32,631	35,131	94,470	93,105

The marginal table gives the particulars of the planted area and assessment under this head.

The showers in the early part of 1871 had a beneficial effect on the coffee plantations; but, in some localities, the blossom was late in appearing, and the berries did not ripen properly. The ravages of the borer did not extend during the year; but a leaf disease injured some plantations and caused much alarm. The crop was smaller than was anticipated; but the prices realized were better than in the previous year.

28. The produce of the cardamom jungles was larger than in 1870-71, and the crops were generally satisfactorily prepared for the market; but prices were not so favorable as in previous years.

29. The experimental Cinchona plantation, established about 3½ miles from Mercara under the charge of the Reverend Mr. Richter, Principal Central School, has been very fairly successful, and it is proposed to extend it, the site appearing to be favorable for the purpose.

30. The failure of the experiments hitherto made in the cultivation of Carolina rice has discouraged the natives from continuing them, but some of the European planters are reported to be growing small quantities of this staple during the current year. The successful cultivation of Carolina rice appears to require deep culture and subsoil drainage, and it will not always succeed in ground which will yield a crop of the indigenous kind.

31. In concluding these remarks, I am glad to be able to repeat the opinion recorded in the Report for 1870—71, that the general condition of the Province and its people is fairly prosperous, and to state that there is reasonable ground for considering that the progress made during the past year has been, on the whole, satisfactory. As regards the coffee plantations, the prospects of some of the European planters have certainly improved, and a few favorable seasons would doubtless greatly change the condition of all for the better; but it seems to be impossible at present to say more on this head than that the prospects of the plantations may be regarded as generally hopeful, though this opinion would probably be demurred to by many planters, and there are no doubt several unfortunate exceptions to whose case it would not be applicable.

32. Major Thomson has continued to fill the post of officiating Superintendent since the last report, and has performed the duties of that office with commendable zeal and efficiency.

R. J. MEADE,
Chief Commissioner.

GENERAL REPORT

ON THE

ADMINISTRATION OF COORG,

FOR 1871–72.

PART I.

PHYSICAL, POLITICAL AND FISCAL GEOGRAPHY.

A.—PHYSICAL GEOGRAPHY.

1. The statistics of physical geography were given at pages 61 to 77 of the Administration Report of Coorg for 1869–70. The area of the Province, in the absence of any correct survey hitherto, is roughly computed at 2,000 square miles, or 1,280,000 statute acres.

2. Cultivated Area.—The following table shews the estimated area under cultivation during the past and previous years:—

	1870–71.	1871–72.
	Acres.	Acres.
Wet or rice lands	66,896	67,278
Dry lands	1,402	1,395
Areca and cocoanut gardens.	72	72
	68,370	68,745
Lands granted for coffee cultivation	77,390	76,275
Do. cardamom do.	30,973	30,973
Total.....	176,733	175,993

3. Culturable Waste.—The extent of land now waste, and supposed to be fit for the ordinary wet and dry cultivation, is estimated at 6,641 acres.

4. Coffee Plantations.—In many cases, coffee holdings have been abandoned, whilst in others planting has made fair progress.

5. The proportion and acreage of planted and unplanted land, in estates held by Europeans and natives, is reported to be—

	Total Area assessed.	Area planted.	Area unplanted.
European	47,333	19, 131	28,202
Native	28,942	16, 000	12,942
Total.....	76,275	35,131	41,144

6. Cardamom Plantations.—As stated in last year's report, the lands leased for cardamom cultivation are not measured, and their extent is only approximately known. They are almost entirely covered with forest.

7. Climate.—The climate was on the whole more salubrious during the past than in the preceding year. The rain lasted longer, and during the monsoon was lighter and more continuous than in 1870—71. From December to March, the weather was unusually dry, and cattle suffered severely from want of forage.

8. Rain-fall.—The total rain-fall for the year is recorded at 130 inches. In the months of June and July, 28 inches 18 cents, and 39 inches 9 cents respectively, were registered.

9. Temperature.—The mean temperature for the year was as follows:—

May.	July.	December.
69·5	64°	61°

10. Winds.—Easterly winds prevailed from October to April. The south-west monsoon continued till September.

B.—POLITICAL RELATIONS WITH NATIVE STATES.

11. There is nothing to be recorded under this head.

12. Inspection of Boundary between Coorg and Mysore.—In accordance with the instructions of the Government of India, contained in Foreign Department Resolution No. 1758, dated 21st August 1871, the boundary between Coorg and Mysore was inspected during the past year. Some of the pillars which were found to be split and injured by the jungle fires have been renewed.

C.—CIVIL DIVISIONS.

13. There have been no changes under this head.

D.—POPULATION.

14. The results of the general census of November 1871 are not yet known, the compilation of the schedules being still incomplete; but according to the revenue returns, the population has increased, and is classed according to race as follows:—

Races.	No. on the 31st March 1871.	No. on the 31st March 1872.
Coorgs	24,466	25,133
Hindús	80,243	80,755
Mahomedans...	5,791	5,880
Christians	1,330	1,721
	111,830	113,689
	Increase...	1,859

15. The census of European British subjects taken in June 1871 shewed that there were 126 non-official residents, exclusive of German missionaries, and other foreigners, who have settled in Coorg.

E.—FISCAL.

16. Survey and Settlement.—The area surveyed during 1871—72 contrasts very favorably with that of the previous year, and though the number of estates was less by 833, the extent surveyed was greater.

	No.	Extent in Acres.
European Estates	8	1,582·52
Native „	426	17,875·70
Blocks of coffee land exceeding 10 acres in extent	462	1,577·99
Total...	896	21,036·21

17. Eight hundred and ninety-six estates including 5 resurveyed estates, with an area of 21,036·21 acres as above, were surveyed, and 196 paisari estates and 486 jamma holdings comprising an area of 9,886 acres were demarcated, as against 1,729 estates and 13,647·28 acres in the year previous, shewing an excess of 7,388·93 acres for the past year.

18. The total cost of the estate survey was Rs. 22,546—12—8, or Rs. 1—1—2 per acre, and of demarcation was Rs. 729—1—6, or Rs. 0—1—2 per acre.

19. Thirty-four native holdings in 3 out of the 6 talooks comprising the Province, remained to be surveyed and demarcated at the close of the year.

20. The resurvey of some of the estates belonging to European planters may, however, be required under the terms of the order of Government noted in the margin, which authorize the relinquishment of portions of estates, if desired by the proprietors, the cost of such resurvey being however borne by them.

No. 529, dated 10th November 1871.

21. VARIETIES OF LAND TENURE.—A description of the various land tenures in Coorg was given in the last Annual Report.

22. GENERAL REVENUE.—The demand for the year under different heads of revenue was Rs. 5,37,699—7—11, which, with the addition of the previous year's balance of Rs. 1,20,288—9—11, raised the aggregate to Rs. 6,57,988—1—10.

23. Collections.—The revenue realized and brought to account up to 31st March 1872 was Rs. 5,33,240—11—3, or 80 per cent of the demand, as against 82·64 per cent in the previous year.

24. Outstanding Balances.—The outstanding balance remaining uncollected at the close of the year under review was Rs. 1,24,747-6-7, and was made up of the items noted in the margin, from which it will be observed that the actual arrear on the 31st March last was only Rs. 26,565—5-1, the amount of Rs. 91,228—2—0 not being due until the 31st May, up to which date the payment of instalments of revenue have been extended.

	Rs. As. P.
Remissions ...	... 6,953—15—6
Khists for April and May	... 91,228— 2—0
Arrear up to 31st March 1872.	26,565— 5—1
Total Rs.....	1,24,747—6—7

25. Remissions.—The remissions to the amount of Rs. 6,953—15—6 were sanctioned during the year, leaving a total balance of Rs. 1,17,793—7—1 to be accounted for; of which Rs. 81,446 were collected up to 30th June, on which date the net outstanding balance was rupees 36,347—7—1.

26. The following is a comparative statement of the revenue under all heads for the past and previous years :—

27. The demand for 1871—72 was Rs. 2,67,900—3—4, as against Rs. 2,70,506—11—7, the decrease being Rs. 2,606—8—3 as shewn in the subjoined comparative statement :—

28. The falling off in land revenue is due to relinquishment of coffee lands chiefly by European planters, and to large remissions granted on account of crops carried away by floods, loss from houses and crops burned, and failure of crops from drought, and other causes, over which the ryots had no control.

29. The other items do not call for remark.

30. Local Funds.—The demand for 1871—72 was Rs. 12,988—12—3, as against Rs. 7,518—8—0 of the year previous, the increase of

Rs. 5,470—4—3 was chiefly owing to collection of tolls on bridges, ghát-roads, and ferries.

31. The subjoined statement shews the particulars of the demand, collection and balance up to the close of the official year ending 30th June last.

PART II.

PROTECTION.

A.—LEGISLATIVE.

32. The following Acts of the Governor General in Council were specially extended to Coorg during the year under review :—

Act II of 1871, extending Prison's Act of 1870.

Act XX of 1864 of the Bombay Code, relating to minors.

B.—JUDICIAL.

33. There were 21 tribunals for the disposal of civil and criminal cases maintained at a cost of Rs. 37,820—8—4, and debited in equal proportions to land revenue and law and justice; on the other hand the receipts from stamps, fines, &c., aggregated Rs. 19,092—13—8. Cases triable by the Court of Sessions and by the Judicial Commissioner, were disposed of as heretofore.

Local Courts 18,894—7—8.
Judicial Commr.'s Court. 198—6—0.

34. The necessity for increasing the salaries of the subordinate judicial officers, and their establishments, having been recognized, a proposal with this object, involving an additional cost of Rs. 464 per month, or Rs. 5,568 per annum, was finally sanctioned by Government on the 13th April 1872.

35. CRIMINAL JUSTICE.—The usual statistics under this head will be found in the appendices II. B, 2 to 5 and 11.

36. Criminal Courts.—Of the above judicial Courts, three exercise both appellate and original jurisdiction in criminal matters, two of which are presided over by European officers.

37. Offences.—The number of offences of all kinds reported was 713, or 25 per cent less than in the previous year; of this 92·70 per cent were brought to trial, involving 1,244 persons against 1,571 in 1870. 3·22 per cent were struck off as false, 3·36 remained undetected, and 5 cases were pending at the close of the year.

38. Increase and Decrease of Crime.—There was a general decrease under almost every class of crime, but chiefly under the heads of forgery, or fraudulently using or possessing forged documents, rioting or unlawful assembly, assault, criminal force, criminal intimidation or insult, defamation, theft, criminal breach of trust, and breach of contract under Act XIII of 1859. On the other hand, there was a serious increase of the more heinous offences of murder, culpable homicide, and house-breaking or house-trespass, 4 cases of murder and 6 of culpable homicide having been reported. In the previous year, only 1 case of culpable homicide occurred ; 3 cases of dacoity were also reported against 2 in 1870.

39. Process.—1244 persons were tried, of whom 516 were arrested by the Police or under warrant, and 728 summoned and voluntarily brought to trial, against 705 and 848 respectively in 1870.

40. Of the above number, 49 per cent were convicted or committed, 35 per cent were acquitted, and 16 per cent were discharged without trial; the result under the first and third heads exhibit a considerable improvement, especially under the latter, the percentage for which, in 1870, reached the high figure of 29.

41. The proportion of acquittals was 35 per cent, against 25 in 1870, indicating the continued necessity for sifting the charges preferred by complainants before summonses are issued by the lower Courts. The importance of this precaution has been fully impressed on the local officers by the officiating Judicial Commissioner, who remarks that better discretion generally appears to have been exercised by the Police and Magistrates in the making of arrests, and the issue of processes in general complaints.

42. Witnesses.—Of 2,324 witnesses who attended the Courts against 2,330 in 1870, 2,211 were detained for 1 day.

89	do.	do.	2 days.

43. General Results.—The work performed by each class of the Courts is tabulated below :—

Class of Courts.	Cases tried.

2nd Assistant Superintendent	61	55
1st do do	230	96
Superintendent	13	4
Sessions Judge	1	8
Judicial Commissioner	1	...
Total.....	925	672

44. The figures for 1871 include 13 cases committed from lower to higher Courts.

45. Duration of Trials.—The average duration of criminal trials in the local Courts was 5 days, against 4 in the previous year, though the number of cases tried was only 672, against 925. The excess period of one day is probably attributable to the fact that the average number of witnesses in each case was 3, as against 2 in 1870. In the Sessions Court the average has increased from 51 to 75, but the only occasional visits of the Sessions Judge, who resides at Mysore, accounts for this.

46. Punishments.—The following table exhibits the punishments inflicted during the past and previous years :—

Number of Persons punished.	1870.	1871.
Fined	483	455
Imprisoned	71	56
Do and fined	26	24
Do and flogged	...	1
Flogged	6	4
Ordered to find Security	133	50
Total.....	719	590

Four men were sentenced to a term of imprisonment for 7 years, 21 to imprisonment not exceeding 2 years, and 56 for terms of 6 months and under.

47. Fewer persons were fined, but the impositions were heavier, the aggregate amount for 1871 was Rs. 3,546—9—0 and the average rupees 7—6—0, as against Rs. 3,149—6—0 and Rs. 6—3—0 respectively in 1870. Of the Rs. 3,546—9—0 imposed, only Rs. 348 remained unrealized.

48. Awards.—Of the amount realized, Rs. 238—1—4 only were paid to injured parties under the provisions of Section 44 of the Criminal Procedure Code, against Rs. 647—15—0 in 1870.

49. European British Subjects.—Four European British subjects were brought before the Superintendent as Justice of the Peace, of whom one was committed to the High Court of Madras, one was fined, and two were acquitted and discharged repectively.

50. No European vagrants were dealt with during the year.

51. Criminal Appeals.—There were 29 appeals against 23 in 1870, which were all disposed of before the close of the year. Seventeen were preferred by thirty two persons to the Superintendent from the decision of Párpattégars' and Subédars' Courts, or about 7 per cent of the persons punished. Of the original orders in these cases, 9 were confirmed, the appeal in 1 was rejected, 2 were modified, 3 were reversed and 2 were remanded for further enquiry.

52. Twelve appeals were preferred to the Judicial Commissioner from the Courts of the Session Judge, the Superintendent and the Assistant Superintendents, against 8 in the previous year. Of the criminal orders in these cases, 7 were confirmed, the appeal in 1 was rejected, 1 was modified, 2 were reversed, and 1 was remanded for further enquiry.

53. The average duration of appeals in the local Courts was 18 days, shewing an improvement as contrasted with 1870, when the average was 20 days. In the Court of the Judicial Commissioner the duration was the same (24 days) as in the previous year.

54. Kidnapping.—No instance of kidnapping female children for immoral purposes was reported during the year.

55. CIVIL JUSTICE.—The usual statistics of civil justice are appended in statements II. B, 6 to 10.

56. There were 1,011 suits instituted, against 1,312 in 1870. All were disposed of within the year, with the exception of one, which was filed on the 21st December 1871. They were distributed as follows:—

60. Value of Suits.—Their aggregate value was Rs. 86,808—6—5, or Rs. 67,793—1—10 less than in the previous year. The average value of suits disposed of was Rs. 83—8—4.

61. Disposal of Suits.—Of the total number of suits disposed of, 725 were uncontested; of these, 362 were decreed on admission, and 231 exparte, as against 435 and 231 respectively in 1870.

62. Only 290 suits were contested, against 435 in 1870, and the percentage of findings in favor of plaintiffs and defendants respectively, was, by a singular coincidence, the same as in the previous year.

63. Duration of Suits.—An improvement is shewn in the average duration of both contested and uncontested suits. The period for the former averaged 30 days, against 43 in 1870, and for the latter 24 days, against 29.

64. Cost of Original Suits.—The total cost of original suits was Rs. 10,777—2—1, against Rs 16,777—2—6 in 1870, the average of each for the two years being Rs. 10—9—9 and Rs. 12—0—1 respectively.

65. Civil Appeals.—Ten appeals remained undisposed of on the 1st January 1871, and 65 were preferred during the year. Of these, 73 were disposed of as follows, and 2 remained pending on the 31st December 1871.

The percentage of decisions confirmed was 43.

66. Duration of Appeals.—The average duration of appeals disposed of by the local Courts was 38 days, against 44 in 1870, and of those disposed of by the Judicial Commissioner, 41 days against 42. The aggregate cost of appeals was only 832—6—0, while in the previous year it amounted to Rs. 1,986—7—11.

67. The average cost of each appeal in both Courts was rupees 12—12—10. The date of the institution of the oldest appeal was the 24th August 1871.

68. Execution of Decrees.—There were 752 applications before the local Courts for the execution of decrees, against 920 in the previous year. Of these, 345 were either transferred or withdrawn, and 402 were executed in full or part satisfaction.

69. Seven judgment-debtors were confined in the Civil Jail for periods varying from 8 to 39 days, the average for each being 14 days, against 15 in 1870 ; when nine debtors were confined for periods varying from 6 to 30 days.

70. Miscellaneous.—The miscellaneous work disposed of amounted to 151 cases and petitions, against 182 in the year 1870, and the dates of the oldest case pending at the close of the year was the 9th December 1871.

71. Court Fees.—The rules framed under the provisions of Sections 20 and 22 of the Court Fees' Act VII of 1872, for the service of process in Coorg, sanctioned by the Government of India letter No. 886 of 31st May 1871, came into force from June 1871, and the system is reported to be working well. The realizations were Rs. 1,352—1—0, and the cost of establishment Rs. 1,301—1—2, leaving a small surplus balance of Rs. 50—15—10 credited to Government.

REGISTRATION.

72. Act VIII of 1871 was extended to the Province from 1st July 1871, in supersession of Act XX of 1866.

73. The prescribed statistical turn is given in the Appendix II. B, 12.

74. Six hundred and three documents of all kinds were registered in 1871—72, against 1,475 in the previous year. Of these, the registration of 465 was compulsory, as compared with 1,294 in the preceding year. This falling off is due to the registration of coffee grants and jamma sannads being made optional by the new Act. In other classes of documents, there has, however, been an increase. In optional registration there has been a continuous falling off from year to year since 1867.

75. The value of property dealt with amounted to Rs. 3,72,181 against Rs. 4,39,562 in the previous year, and the fees levied amount to 0—5—3 per cent in the same.

76. Financial Results.—The financial results of the year shew a deficit of Rs. 254—3—4; on account of this, a reduction in the establishment charges was recommended by the Inspector General of Registration, and an order to carry out the measure from the 1st June 1872 has since been issued.

C.—PRISONS.

77. The prescribed jail statements are given in the Appendix II. C, 1 to 22, and the following table exhibits the chief statistics of jail administration during the past and previous years:—

Years.	Number of Jails and Lock-ups.	Total number of Prisoners.	Daily average number of Prisoners.	Conduct and Discipline.		Number of Escapes.	Health.			Net Cost to Government (minus Prisoners' earnings) per Annum.			Earnings per Prisoner per Annum.

Decrease.	...	34	3·47	0·11	...	2	1·94	0·98	3·54	7	1	10	...	...	...

*The cost per convict was in 1870 erroneously calculated on the daily average number of prisoners instead of on the total prison population, calculated on the latter method the cost for 1870 is reduced to Rs. 42—6—10.

78. Accommodation.—As noticed in last year's report, the present jail at Mercara is, in many respects, an unsatisfactory building for the purpose for which it is used, but it provides adequate accommodation for more than the ordinary number of prisoners incarcerated in it, and with improved ventilation and such repairs as are needed, as also due attention to cleanliness and general sanitary arrangements, ought to suffice till the financial difficulties disappear, which have hitherto prevented the erection of a new jail. Several minor improvements have however been made during the year, and an estimate for other alterations that are necessary is under preparation.

79. Jail Population.—The total number of prisoners of all classes incarcerated in the jail and lock-ups was 379, against 466 in 1870. The daily average number was 69·43, against 68·02 in 1870.

80. The number of convicted persons in jail was 138, against 172 in 1870, of whom 56 were received over from 1870 and 82 were admitted during the year. The daily average was 54·98, against 58·45 in 1870. Of the total number, 88 were released, and one died, leaving 49 in jail on the last day of 1871. Of nine reconvicted-prisoners, six had been convicted twice, and three for the third time.

81. Females.—The female prisoners under confinement numbered six.

82. Health.—The health of the prisoners was remarkably good, and the sickness in the jail was of an unimportant character. Only one death occurred as against three in 1870. The daily average number of sick to average strength was 7·18, as against 9·12 in the previous year.

83. Conduct and Discipline.—The punishments for breaches of jail discipline numbered 52, against 9 in 1870.

84. Manufactures.—The net profits from manufactures was Rs. 1,010—13—8, against Rs. 445—10—9 in 1870, and the estimated earnings of the prisoners under all heads was Rs. 3,037—3—0, or Rs. 56—14—0 per head, against Rs. 2,982—8—0, or Rs. 53—6—0 in the previous year.

85. Expenditure.—The cost under all heads was Rs. 5,884—3—3, against Rs. 7,209—13—2 in the previous year. Deducting Rs. 1,010—

13—8 from the total expenditure, the estimated net cost per convict is reduced to Rs. 35—5—0, against Rs. 42—6—10 in 1870.

86. Civil Prisoners.—Seven civil prisoners were incarcerated, all of whom were released within the year. The cost per head was rupees 2—2—4.

87. Under-trial Prisoners.—The number of under-trial prisoners in the jail and lock-ups was 234, all of whom were disposed of except 10, whose cases remained pending at its close. The daily average number was 14·19, against 9·24 in 1870, and the annual cost per head of average strength was Rs. 56—15—11, against Rs. 84—3—10 in the latter year.

88. The Chief Commissioner visited and inspected the jail in the beginning of January last.

D.—POLICE.

89. Strength and Cost of Police.—Town Police.—The strength of the regular or Town Police consisting of 24 peons and 2 daffédars* remains the same as in the previous year. The total annual cost was Rs. 1,596.

* Serjeants.

90. Village Police.—The district or rural Police consists of 3,818 jamma ryots, who receive no money payment, but, as stated in last year's report, hold land on reduced assessment in consideration of the performance of Police duties.

91. Police Working.—Of 152 cases cognizable by the Police, 128 were investigated, 106 by the Police suo motu, and 22 by order of the Magistrate; out of these, 60 convictions were obtained.

92. Arrests.—Of the persons involved therein, 213 were arrested by the Police, and 43 by order of the Magistrates, making in all, with 8 persons received by transfer, 264 persons, as against 291 in 1870.

93. The following comparative table shews the results of the past two years:—

PERSONS ARRESTED WITHOUT WARRANT	Percentage of Convictions to Arrests.
	1870.	1871.
Class I, Offences against the State, public tranquillity, safety and justice ...	94·7	8·33

„ V, Do. against property	28·9	37·24
„ VI, Other offences not specified above.	50·0	100·0
Total.....	35·0	34·84

94. Four cases of murder, and one of attempt at murder, and six cases of culpable homicide, were reported during the year, in which 17 persons were arrested; of these, only two were convicted of the latter offence. Three dacoities were committed, in connection with which 19 persons were arrested, 5 were discharged without trial, 4 were acquitted by the Sessions Judge, 1 died, 4 were finally convicted, and 5 were pending trial at the close of the year. There were no cases of kidnapping during the year.

95. Ninety-one cases of theft were reported, of which 67 were investigated, involving the arrest of 122 persons; of these, 41 persons or 33·6 per cent were convicted, as against 29·44 per cent in 1870.

96. Stolen Property.—Non-cognizable Cases in which the Police were employed.—The percentage of stolen property recovered was 34·48, as compared with 54·29 in the preceding year. The Police were also employed in 561 cases not cognizable by them. In these 988 persons were arrested or summoned, of whom 489 were acquitted and 499 convicted.

97. Accidental Deaths.—The number of accidental deaths reported was 26, against 17 in 1870.

E.—MILITARY.

98. There is one Regiment of Native Infantry only in the Province quartered at Mercara, the strength of which is shewn in the margin as the same stood on the 31st March 1872. There was a slight improvement in the health of the troops over the previous year, and the medical officer reports that most of those who died had contracted disease on foreign service and that their deaths were not specially attributable to the climate of Coorg. There are no local troops in Coorg, but the "jamma ryots" are liable to be called out, should any emergency arise.

PART III.

PRODUCTION AND DISTRIBUTION.

A.—FINANCE.

99. Revenue and Expenditure.—The detailed statements prescribed under these heads will be found in Appendix III. A, 1—3.

100. The financial results of the year 1871—72 exhibit an estimated surplus of income over expenditure amounting to Rs. 2,92,592—7—3.

101. Receipts.—The collections made within the year aggregated Rs. 5,45,853.

102. Expenditure.—The expenditure of the year amounted to rupees 2,49,310.

103. Abstract of Receipts.—The following statement shews the receipts of 1871—72 under the several heads of revenue, as compared with its Budget estimates. The increase and decrease are briefly noted below:—

		Net Increase.....	24,316 14 6

104. Land Revenue.—The increase of Rs. 5,984—0—2 under this head was chiefly owing to a large increase in fixed collections from extension of coffee cultivation, to high rates at which plots of waste land have been sold, and to the transfer of receipts from house tax and of the District and Municipal funds, which had previously been credited under the head of provincial services.

105. Forests.—The increase in this item was chiefly from the higher prices realized from sandalwood than was anticipated.

106. Abkári.—There was an increase of Rs. 17,594—0—0, chiefly under the head of still head duty, and a decrease of Rs. 10,473—0—0 from the sale of licenses owing to a reduction of the number of shops for the retail vend of spirituous and fermented liquors. The net increase amounted to Rs. 7,121—0—0.

107. Assessed Taxes.—The increase in assessed taxes is wholly from the income tax, which exceeded the Budget estimate by Rs. 2,221—1—8, owing to the crops on coffee estates being better and giving the planters more income than was expected.

108. Stamps.—The decrease of Rs. 12,070 is partly owing to diminished sale of Court Fees' stamps, and to the transfer of this item of receipt to the head of law and justice. The increase in the sale of general stamps amounted to Rs. 2,884, the difference being the net decrease of Rs. 9,186 shewn in the statement.

109. Law and Justice.—The increase is merely nominal, arising from the transfer of the sale proceeds of Court Fees' stamps to this head of account.

110. Miscellaneous Receipts.—There was a net increase of Rs. 451—7—10 under this head, which calls for no remark.

111. Expenditure.—The disbursements as particularized in the appendix were Rs. 6,00,003—10—5.

112. The following is an abstract of the expenditure in 1871—72 compared with that of 1870—71.

113. Civil and Political Establishments and Contingencies.—There was a saving under this head of Rs. 3,137—6—0, owing to reduction of expenditure.

114. Judicial Charges.—The cost of jails was reduced, but the entertainment of the establishment for service of processes formerly paid for by suitors in cash caused the increase shewn in the statement.

115. Police.—The increase was caused by the cost of supplying clothing to the Police force.

116. Military.—The strength of the 8th Regiment, M. N. I., was raised by recruiting during the past year, and the Military charge was in consequence higher than in 1870—71. The total increase in payments under the head "Military" was Rs. 44,019—4—2, including an advance of Rs. 17,000 recoverable in the year following.

117. Post Office.—The decrease under this head of Rs. 929—6—0 calls for no remark.

118. Telegraph.—The decrease of Rs. 8,480—15—6 in the payments made to the Telegraph Department, was owing to the transfer of the head quarters of the Superintendent of the Malabar Coast Division from Mercara to Calicut.

119. Superannuation and Retired Allowances.—One superannuation pension, previously debited to "Miscellaneous," was added to the list.

No pensions were granted; but one of the value of Rs. 105 per annum lapsed to Government during the year.

120. Ecclesiastical.—The appointment of Chaplain was vacant for nine months in 1870—71; but it was filled, and the full pay was drawn during the year under review.

121. Public Works.—The increase of expenditure on public works from imperial and civil allotments was Rs. 10,619—2—10.

122. Education.—The decrease of Rs. 987—10—0 was due to the reduction of expenditure effected in the pay of teachers, and contingent charges, in the year under report.

123. Miscellaneous.—The difference in miscellaneous payments arose from the superannuation pension above referred to being debited to its proper head, and by the reduction of the establishments of the travellers' bungalows, after their conversion into Nád Cutcherries.

124. Local Funds.—The expenditure under this head includes both District and Municipal funds. The increase of Rs. 5,150—0—0 over the last year's disbursements, was chiefly due to the construction of a bridge and drains on the Kuggade-Kotagéri road between the Perambádi and Sampangi Ghâts.

125. Under the head of "other charges" the items noted in the margin are included, and the increase over the previous year's disbursement was Rs. 18,175—9—2, of which nearly one half occurred under the head of refunds and drawbacks.

B.—PUBLIC WORKS.

126. STAFF.—The supervising staff for Coorg is the same as for Mysore, but no charge therefor, under the head of direction, has as yet been made against the Province.

127. Till lately, the Division has formed the charge of an Executive Engineer; but it is now reduced to that of an Assistant Engineer, who, with two upper-subordinates, carries on its duties.

128. For the work of the Forest Department, there is an Assistant Conservator in subordination to the Conservator of Forests in Mysore.

129. Expenditure.—The following abstract of expenditure for 1871—72 includes forests, but not establishment.

	From Imperial Revenue.	From Local Funds.	Total.

Total Rs.....	70,192	7,721	77,913

Further statistical details are given in Appendix III. B.

130. The principal works executed during the year were as follows:—

131. Military Works.—Such expenditure as was required for works connected with the Mercara Regiment, has, up to the close of the year under review, been met from the Madras Budget, and has, therefore, not appeared against the Coorg accounts.

132. Civil Buildings.—The Vírájéndrapéte Public Offices, were finished on the 27th March at a total outlay of Rs. 32,139. Some progress was also made with the new Executive Engineer's office; but the site being objected to by the Chief Commissioner, and it appearing desirable that all the offices at Mercara should be brought together within the fort, the work was stopped, and a new building, suitable for the requirements of the Assistant Superintendent, Assistant Engineer, and Assistant Conservator, commenced on a new site immediately within the entrance gateway.

133. Communications.—The Wurti bridge, consisting of two iron girders (spans of 40 feet each,) and situated at the foot of the Periyambádi Ghát, was all but finished, at a total outlay of Rs. 14,107. Less satisfactory progress was, however, made with the Chauranhalla bridge (also of two 40 feet spans) on the Mercara-Kodlipéte road.

134. The only other original work was the completion of the trace for a new line of road leading from Mercara to Siddápura in the heart of Coorg, and which, when worked out for use by carts, will, with the continuation of the line from Siddápura to Periyápatna, prove a great relief to traffic.

135. The Periyambádi and Sampáji Ghâts, as well as other ghât-roads in Coorg, are all reported to have been maintained in good order, excepting the southern line through Tittimatti and Atúr, which having been originally badly traced, and running in places through country devoid of metal or gravel, was found difficult to keep in order. The Mercara-Kodlipéte road, which was never properly finished through failure of funds, also presented difficulties in the matter of maintenance. On the whole, however, the roads in Coorg may be considered to have been well kept during the year.

136. The outlay on the maintenance of roads was Rs. 41,040.

137. Establishment.—The charges were Rs. 24,827, against rupees 25,497 in the previous year. Owing, however, to the non-utilization of a large portion of the year's grant, the total expenditure was of the high figure of 40 per cent. Recent changes in the establishment will bring the charge under this head to more reasonable limits in future.

138. General Observations.—The sum available from the year's grant for general expenditure, after providing for the necessary outlay on establishment, and the maintenance of existing works, amounted to Rs. 34,133, of which, Rs. 11,663 were expended on the Vírájpéte, and new offices at Mercara, and the Wurti bridge. Of the balance, Rs. 8,000 were surrendered to the Government of India, as it was found impossible to utilize this sum within the year from difficulty in procuring labor, and Rs. 7,868 lapsed partly from the same cause, and partly from the stoppage of work on the Executive Engineer's office, and the abandonment of the site originally fixed for the building.

Forests.

139. The chapter under this head, in the Report for the year 1870-71, detailed the distribution of the forests in Coorg; and mentioned the characteristic trees.

140. During the year now under report, revised Forest Rules, drawn up under Act VII of 1865, were introduced, and 12 forests were set off as State-forests; of these, ten are deciduous and mixed, and estimated to cover 239,000 acres. Two are evergreen, and their area has not been estimated. Surveys may alter the rough results now given.

141. The demarcation of these forests was commenced in September last, and by the close of the year, 38½ miles were cleared to the full width of 21 feet, and 3¼ miles to half width. The total expenditure was Rs. 720, at rates varying from Rs. 6—10—6 to Rs. 20—12—0 per mile.

142. Steps were taken to establish a number of small depôts for the supply of wood to the public, with the view of doing away as far as possible with the license system. The measure is still under consideration.

143. The establishment is the same as last year, being one Assistant Conservator, and one Ranger with twenty Forest watchers, and the office establishments.

144. The teak plantations at Kármád and Kutampole were extended by 60 acres of land prepared last year being planted up, and 65 acres were cleared for the plantings of 1872—73. Work was obstructed at Kutampole by much sickness and death among the coolies. The two plantations now measure 439 acres in all, and a total of Rs. 12,191 have been spent on them since 1867—68 and 1868—69, respectively.

145. Sandalwood Reserves.—A large quantity of seed was sown in the Waddarane reserve, much of which germinated.

146. The yield of the forests in timber, and collection of sandalwood and sales, are shewn in the following table:—

Description of Wood.	Fellings.	Collection.	Sales.
Teak Logs	134	369	786
Jungle Logs	721	159	60
Branch Pieces...	...	12 cart-loads.	...
Bamboos	21,850	21,850	21,850

			Total Rs...		31,951	0 0

149. The operations of the year thus gave a net profit of Rs. 56,812, while the surplus receipts in cash were Rs. 61,472.

150. In addition to the above, wood and bamboos to the value of Rs. 2,671—4—0 were given to the 8th Regiment, Madras Native Infantry, for their huts.

151. Mr. J. H. Hunter, Assistant Conservator, was reduced to the Grade of Sub-Assistant Conservator and transferred to Mysore, and

BR 27F

Mr. H. R. Ring was appointed from 1st September 1871, to officiate as 3rd Grade Assistant Conservator in Coorg in his room.

D.—AGRICULTURAL.

152. Paddy or Rice.—The cultivation of this staple article of food was in some parts of the Province injured by the long breaks in the monsoon, though the prospects of the harvest subsequently improved. The rain, however, continued longer than usual, and it was found that though the fields looked remarkably well, the ears were comparatively small and light, while the moisture and want of sunshine encouraged the growth of straw. In North Coorg the heavy fall of rain at the end of November caused the rivers and streams to overflow, and the crops which had been just cut were, in some places, swept away by the floods.

153. The season was favorable throughout for dry or unirrigated crops, and the yield of both rági and gram was abundant.

154. Coffee.—The early showers proved beneficial to the coffee plantations, though in some localities the blossom was late in appearing, and the berries did not properly ripen. The ravages of the "borer" did not extend beyond the places affected in the previous year. Many trees however suffered from the leaf disease, which caused considerable damage, particularly on the ghát estates, though most of them recovered subsequently, and are expected to yield fruit next year. The crops were smaller, but realized better prices than in the year previous.

155. Cardamoms.—The yield of cardamom was greater than in 1870—71; but the market was not so favorable to the producers.

156. Cinchona.—The plantation at Mercara has succeeded so well, that its extension is contemplated; no bark was analyzed during the year.

157. Carolina Rice.—The experiments hitherto made are not sufficiently satisfactory to induce the natives to undertake the cultivation of this variety; but some of the European planters purpose sowing it in small quantities during the present year.

158. Stock.—The following is a summary of the stock returns during the past and previous years, which shew a considerable increase in the year under review.

	1871—72.	1870—71.
Horned Cattle	120,794	89,713
Horses	133	156
Ponies	507	495
Donkeys	266	258
Sheep and Goats	7,402	4,686
Pigs	13,556	12,391
Carts	254	225
Ploughs	30,447	32,308

159. The mortality amongst cattle, though less than in the previous year, was still large, and caused great distress to the ryots. During the last four months of the year no rain fell, and there was great difficulty in obtaining forage.

E.—PRICES OF PRODUCE AND LABOR.

160. There was no variation in the prices of edible grains.

161. Labor.—The average rate paid for coolies was four annas a day, as against five annas in 1870—71. The hire of skilled labor has, on the other hand, risen from fourteen annas to one rupee per diem, and even higher wages are often paid in special cases.

162. Cart hire was about the same as in the previous year.

F.—MINES AND QUARRIES.

163. There is nothing for report under this head.

G.—MANUFACTURES.

164. As stated in last year's Report the only articles manufactured in the Province are the shawls (kammarbands), cloths, and knives worn by the Coorgs.

H.—TRADE.

165. Though no reliable statistics are available, it is apparent that trade is steadily increasing. The articles exported and imported are much the same as last year. The exports were less, but the imports greater.

I.—COINAGE AND CURRENCY.

166. Gold.—There was no transaction in gold coins at the local treasury during the year.

167. Silver.—A remittance of Rs. 40,000 in small silver coins was received from the Bank of Madras during the year, and a further remittance of Rs. 1,50,000, from the South Canara Treasury, to meet supply bills drawn on that of Coorg, by the Accountant General, Fort St. George.

168. Copper.—Copper coins valued at Rs. 80,000 were received from the Collectors of North and South Arcot.

169. Currency Notes.—Currency Notes were received in the treasuries during the year, to the amount of Rs. 1,01,170, and issued to the extent of Rs. 1,17, 650,as against Rs. 70,700 and Rs. 81,110, respectively, in 1870—71. No notes were received from the Commissioner of Paper Currency.

170. The transactions in remittance transfer receipts are diminishing, the receipts drawn and cashed being only Rs. 40,344—13—1 and Rs. 18,467 —8 —6, as against Rs. 49,814—12—7 and Rs. 1,06,632—0—10, respectively, in 1870 – 71.

171. MONEY ORDERS.—The following table shews that the number of money orders issued and paid was greater than in the previous year; but their value was less.

	No. of Orders issued.	Amount of Orders issued.			No. of Orders issued.	Amount of Orders paid.
In 1870—71	903	32,302	4	0	158	10,377	9	0
In 1871—72	194	31,278	2	0	155	9,092	15	0

172. The commission charged amounted to Rs. 380—8—0, of which sum Rs. 51 were given as remuneration to the Agent.

K.—CHARITABLE INSTITUTIONS.

173. The dispensaries at Mercara and Virájéndrapéte reported on in Part V, Section B, are the only charitable institutions in Coorg dependent on Government.

PART IV.

INSTRUCTION.

A.—ECCLESIASTICAL.

174. There has not been any change in the ecclesiastical establishments during the year.

B.—EDUCATION.

175. Financial Statistics.—The subjoined comparative statement shews the Budget provision for public instruction during the past three years:—

	1869—70.	1870—71.	1871—72.
From Imperial Revenue	14,445	15,717	13,620

Private expenditure on grant-in-aid Schools.	1,307	937	793
Miscellaneous....	279	...	...
	14,659	15,960	14,413

177. Inspection.—The Inspector of the First Circle in Mysore is entirely responsible for the inspection of the Central School in Mercara, and the Anglo-vernacular Schools in Vírájpéte, Kudikere, Fraserpéte, and Nápoklu. The nád schools are under the Reverend G. Richter, who is aided in the inspection of them by the Sub-Deputy Inspector appointed for the purpose. During Mr. Richter's absence, the latter have been placed under the Inspector in Mysore, to whom his reports are regularly submitted.

178. Educational Institutions.—There were in Coorg in 1871-72—

33 Government Educational Institutions.
3 Grant-in-aid do.
28 Unaided Indigenous Schools.

179. The above institutions include—

1 School of the higher class with 3 minor branches.
4 Of the middle class.
27 Of the lower class.
1 Normal School.

180. The private institutions, aided and unaided, all belong to the lower class.

181. In the schools of the higher class, pupils are taught up to the matriculation standard, though none have yet passed the examination. In schools of the middle class, an education is imparted sufficient to qualify for promotion to the higher class school.

182. In the lower class schools, the instruction is all in Kanarese, and the course comprises reading, arithmetic, a brief geography and history of Coorg and of India, reading manuscript letters, and the composition of business papers.

183. There are in all the schools 2,452 children, being an increase of 437 over the number reported last year, and amounting to 2 per cent of the whole population. In relation to the Coorg population alone, it is found that nearly 6 per cent are receiving instruction in schools.

184. The average annual cost to Government for educating each pupil, in the Central School at Mercara, was Rs. 27—9—11; in the middle class schools, Rs. 9—3—4; and in the lower class schools, Rs 3-5-8. The Government contribution to the grant-in-aid schools at Vírájpéte and Anandapúr, was Rs. 192.

185. Government Schools—Higher Class.—The only one which comes under this head is the Central School at Mercara. The numbers have risen to 248, of whom 144 are Coorgs, 18 Brahmans, 28 Mahomedans, 43 Hindús of various castes, and 15 Christians, including 6 Coorg and 10 other girls. The present condition of the school is very good, with the exception of the Hindustáni department; and steps have been taken to secure its improvement.

186. Middle Class.—There are four of these schools in operation, designed as feeders to the Central School. The number of scholars is 173. A fifth school of this description has been sanctioned, and will probably be opened at Kodlipéte in a few months. It has been determined to add Hindustáni branches to the two schools at Vírájpéte and Fraserpéte.

187. Lower Class.—The number of primary Kanarese schools is the same as last year, viz., 27. But Government have sanctioned their being increased to 84, and additional schools will be opened as may be deemed desirable, as certificated teachers are obtainable from the Normal School. The number of pupils in the 27 schools now in operation is 1,512. Of these, 1,165 are Coorgs, including 113 girls. The instruction imparted embraces reading, for which purpose the first, second, and third books of lessons are used, containing a variety of useful information on common objects; writing from dictation and copy writing, and reading manuscripts; arithmetic—the first four simple and compound rules; geography and history of Coorg and India, and composition of business letters.

188. Female Schools.—There are 130 girls attending the various Government boys schools in Coorg; all study the same lessons, but in the Central School, needlework, &c., are also taught. There are also 31 girls in the aided schools, making a total of 161 receiving instruction. The girls' boadring house is now completed and furnished, and will shortly be occupied.

189. Aided Schools.—As reported last year, there are three grant-in-aid schools, one belonging to the German Mission at Anandapúr, in which both boys and girls are taught, and two connected with the Roman Catholic Mission at Vírájpéte, one for boys, the other for girls. The instruction imparted is similar to that given in the Government lower class schools.

190. Unaided Schools.—It has been ascertained that there are 28 unaided schools, with 403 children attending them. They are all of a very elementary character; and it is anticipated that many of the teachers will become candidates for admission to the Government Normal School.

191. Normal School.—The Kanarese Training Master from the Bangalore Normal School has been placed in charge of this institution. There are twelve students at present, and all indigenous masters who wish to enter the class and go through the course of instruction, are admitted.

192. The following statement shews the expenditure on educational buildings in 1871—72.

Expenditure from Department Public Works Budget.	Rs.	As.	P.	Expenditure from Educational Budget.	Rs.	As.	P.

C.—SCIENTIFIC AND LITERARY.

193. There are no scientific institutions or literary presses in the Province, but a little rough lithography is done in the jail. The requirements of the Educational Department are supplied from the Book Depôt at Bangalore.

PART V.

VITAL STATISTICS.

A.—BIRTHS, DEATHS, AND MARRIAGES.

194. The statistics were calculated on the same area and number of population as the previous year, and the deaths are shewn below, contrasted with those that occurred in 1870—71.

	1871.	1870.	Increase.	Decrease.
Cholera	31	25	6	...
Small-pox...	25	25	...	...
Fever	2,300	2,210	90	...
Bowel Complaints	438	586	...	148
Injuries	29	37	2	...
All other causes	398	346	52	...
Total.....	3,231	3,229	...	...

or 28·31 per mille of the population. This is in excess of the number of births registered during the year, which was only 16·24 per mille; but the mortality, as previously stated, occurs largely among the immigrant coolies, who, leaving their families in the low country, come up about the end of June and beginning of July to seek for work in the coffee and other estates, when they suffer severely from the inclemency of the weather. This unduly swells the percentage of deaths amongst the males.

195. With the exception of Mercara, where the death rate from fever alone is 26·10 per mille of the population, the mortality in the towns was less than in the country generally. There is no question that fever is the principal and most fatal disease of the Province.

196. Although cholera prevailed at Fraserpéte and some adjoining villages, it is satisfactory to note that there were only 31 deaths from this cause, and that small-pox only numbered 25 victims. There was no general epidemic throughout the Province.

B.—HOSPITALS AND DISPENSARIES.

197. Civil Dispensary.—The Civil Dispensary at Mercara afforded relief to 4,716 persons, of whom 204 were in, and 4,512 out-patients, 262 were Europeans or Eurasians, and 4,454 natives. There is an increase of 197 in the figures which represented the working of the institution in 1870—71.

198. The institution at Vírájéndrapéte affords out-door relief only, and the number treated during the year was 1,937, with an average daily attendance of 11·75. The increase in the number seeking treatment is sufficient proof that the objects of this institution are becoming known and appreciated. Of the number treated two died.

199. The following statement shews the sources of income and expenditure of both institutions :—

Dispensaries.	Contributions from—				Total Income.	Total Expenditure.	Balance at close of year.
	Imperial Funds.	Local Funds.	Donations and Subscriptions.	Sale of Medicines
Mercara	3,995 11 5	...	915 15 11	656 14 3	5,568 9 7	3,411 1 1	2,157 8 6
Vírájéndrapéte	590 8 5	...	...	67 15 6	658 7 11	600 7 5	. 0 6

200. The admissions into the Hospital of the 8th Regiment, Native Infantry, were 631, and the deaths numbered seven, including one in-patient.

201. The health of the prisoners in jail was better than in the preceding year. The average daily sick rate was 5·5, and the death rate was 30·5 per mille of average strength, or 32·7 lower than in the previous year.

C—VACCINATION.

202. Nine hundred and fifty-two operations were performed, 827 by the vaccinators, and 125 by the civil medical subordinates. Of this number, 605 were returned as successful. The operations last year numbered 772.

203. The medical officers' report of the vaccinators is unsatisfactory. They are stated to be generally very remiss in the performance of their duties, though they have been kept under constant supervision and fined for negligence.

204. The cost of establishment was Rs. 360, and the cost of each successful operation was 0—9—6.

PART VI.

MISCELLANEOUS.

205. The number of Post Offices was the same as in the previous year, and the following statement shews that the general correspondence of the Province for the past three years is steadily increasing :—

	1869—70.	1870—71.	1871—72.
Letters	122,896	150,629	166,864
Newspapers and Books	23,019	29,407	36,118
Parcels	1,394	1,326	1,558
Total.....	147,309	181,362	204,540

206. Receipts.—The receipts amounted to Rs. 7,384—9—4, as against Rs. 7,860—6—0 in 1870—71.

207. Disbursements.—The total disbursements on account of the Department amounted to Rs. 4,349—15—4.

208. District Post.—The returns of the Anché or District Post shew a decrease of correspondence and increase of revenue, attributable to the introduction of stricter regulations in regard to payment of postage.

209. The letters, parcels, &c., received and despatched, amounted to 249,269, as against 327,770 in 1870—71.

210. Receipts.—The total collections during the year amounted to Rs. 1,102—15—6, or Rs. 978—1—6 more than in 1870—71.

211. Disbursements.—The total disbursements amounted to Rs. 5,409—14—0, as against Rs. 5,361—2—6 in 1870—71.

212. TELEGRAPH.—There were 1,545 messages received, as against 2195, and 960 despatched, as against 1,345 in 1870—71.

213. Receipts.—The receipts in this Department were Rs. 2,129—12—6, as against Rs. 2,094—3—0 in the year previous, shewing an increase of Rs. 35—9—6.

214. Disbursements -The disbursements, which have diminished owing to the removal of the head quarters of the Superintendent of the Malabar Coast Division, from Mercara to Calicut, were Rs. 11,876-1-[illegible], as against 20,282—3—3 in 1870—71.

215. MUNICIPALITIES.—No changes have been made in the constitution of the Boards, or in the nature of the taxes levied in the Municipalities of Mercara and Vírájéndrapéte.
